Assignment-4(Java script)

1. Write a program in java script to take an integer value as input from the text box and display the value in a paragraph.

2. Write a program in java script to take an integer value as input from the text box, check prime or not and display the result in a paragraph.

3. Write a program in java script to take an integer value as input from the text box, check it is palindrome or not and display the result in a paragraph.

4. Write a program in java script to take year as input from the text box, check it is leap year or not and display the result in a paragraph.

5. Write a program in java script to take an integer value as input from the text box, find the sum of digits and display the result in a paragraph.

6. Write a program in java script to take an integer value as input from the text box, find the reverse and display the result in a paragraph.

7. Write a program in java script for Addition of two integer numbers taken as input from the user and display the result.

8. Write a program in java script to take age as input from the text box, if age is greater than 18 displays eligible for voting in paragraph and display not eligible of less than 18.